CONSTITUTION OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN

Article 4. Right of individuals to be dealt with in accordance with law, etc.

(1) To enjoy the protection of law and to be treated in accordance with law is the inalienable right of every citizen, wherever he may be, and of every other person for the time being within Pakistan.

(2) In particular: (a) no action detrimental to the life, liberty, body, reputation or property of any person shall be taken except in accordance with law; (b) no person shall be prevented from or be hindered in doing that which is not prohibited by law; and (c) no person shall be compelled to do that which the law does not require him to do.

Article 9. Security of person.

No person shall be deprived of life or liberty save in accordance with law. Under Article 9, the right to life is protected as a fundamental right.

Article 10. Safeguards as to arrest and detention.

(1) No person who is arrested shall be detained in custody without being informed, as soon as may be, of the grounds for such arrest, nor shall he be denied the right to consult and be defended by a legal practitioner of his choice.

(2) Every person who is arrested and detained in custody shall be produced before a magistrate within a period of twenty-four hours of such arrest.

Article 10A. Right to fair trial.

For the determination of his civil rights and obligations or in any criminal charge against him a person shall be entitled to a fair trial and due process.

Article 25. Equality of citizens.

(1) All citizens are equal before law and are entitled to equal protection of law. There shall be no discrimination on the basis of sex alone.
